

Director of Summer Fun- Activity Program Coordinator

Join the Summer House Park Activity Team and help create unforgettable summer experiences on the beautiful Saugeen Bruce Peninsula! At Summer House Park, we offer fun, family-friendly programming that connects guests with nature while promoting environmental stewardship and sustainable outdoor recreation.

We're looking for an energetic, cheerful, and professional Activity Program Coordinator who loves working with people and inspiring others. You are the CHEERLEADER for our campground — bringing enthusiasm, creativity, and positivity to every activity.

What You'll Do

- Develop weekly programs for children and adults that include nature-based learning, environmental awareness, and responsible outdoor recreation
- Facilitate daytime and evening activities in a safe, inclusive, and environmentally responsible way
- Help organize and run special events such as barbeques, tournaments, and carnivals, with an emphasis on low-waste practices and supporting local partners
- Promote programs throughout the park using word-of-mouth, chalkboards, social media, and posters, while encouraging digital communication where possible
- Create a weekly information display highlighting local wildlife and flora, seasonal changes, conservation efforts, and ways guests can help protect the park
- Maintain a clean, safe, and organized activity space

What You'll Bring

- Experience designing and leading activities for children, families, or mixed-age groups, ideally outdoors or in nature-based settings
- Creative, energetic, and professional with strong communication and guest engagement skills
- Ability to work independently and collaboratively in a small team, adapting to changing schedules and weather
- Knowledge of environmental stewardship, outdoor safety, and sustainable recreation; background in environmental education, recreation, or tourism is an asset
- Experience with event planning and using social media or digital tools to promote programs
- Police background check required; First Aid/CPR certification an asset
